

“Without trying to exonerate myself, I want to remind you my spiritual superiors, whoever they may be, should be patient with me, and not cast the accusation after me, even to the grave that I have undertaken too much here, that I have begun too grandly and extended the work of God too widely. The future will give a fuller explanation.”
(Letter # 735, July 20, 1848, to Fr. Siegert written from Baltimore)
